

Brielle Stark-Adler, Ph.D. – Iona College

Brielle Stark Adler is Director of the Iona College Counseling Center, a non-integrated counseling center in a private, 4-year Catholic college with approximately 4,000 students. She has been in the field of college mental health since receiving her Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology in 2009 and has been Director at Iona for 3 years. Brielle works in both psychodynamic and cognitive approaches to psychotherapy and coordinates the Counseling Center's clinical training programs. Brielle is also actively involved in development of crisis protocols and crisis response strategies on campus.